

The Range Croquet Club, Maleny Report 110219

Eighteen players from Range Care visited the lawn on Tuesday morning and, in stunning conditions, had a very pleasant time.

On Thursday Donna Manning played Kath Smith. Donna made two nice breaks of 6 and 5 to win 14 - 6 while Bev Sockhill and Gillian Bradley played a friendly training game of association on the same lawn.

A very enjoyable social “come and try” day was held on Saturday as a follow up to the Australia Day function and several players came out to enjoy the fine weather.

The attached photograph shows Gillian Bradley, one of our members, at the “come and try” function in a typical stance of player who has just missed a hoop. The body language is “How could this happen .... To me???”. Sometimes hoops have teeth.

Helen Andrews and Ken Barker played opportunistic croquet to beat Vince Carbery and Nick Smith 14 - 5 on Sunday.

Play days on the picturesque lawns at the bottom of the showground are, it being summer, 2.10 pm for 2.30 pm on Thursdays and Sundays.
